

Welcome to HangingPanda Pvt. Ltd. Company Policy

Director's Message

At HangingPanda, we believe that a clear and consistent set of policies is essential for maintaining a healthy, productive, and inclusive workplace. Our policies are designed to provide guidance on the expectations, rights, and responsibilities of both the company and our employees. They help us ensure that our operations run smoothly while fostering an environment where everyone feels respected, valued, and empowered to do their best work.

Why Policies Matter

Our policies are more than just rules—they are a reflection of our company values. By outlining clear guidelines, we aim to:

1. Protect Our Employees 2. Ensure Compliance 3. Promote Fairness 4. Foster Growth

We encourage open communication, and if you have any questions or need clarification on any policy, don't hesitate to reach out to the Human Resources department or your manager. It is our goal to ensure that every policy serves the best interest of our team, supports our collective success, and reflects our commitment to a positive and professional workplace.

Company Policies

- Recruitment and Hiring Policies
- Health and Safety Policies
- Information Technology (IT) and Data Security Policies
- Anti-Fraud and Ethics Policies
- Remote Work Policies
- Disciplinary Action & Grievance Policies
- Working Hours and Attendance Policies
- Leave Deduction and Salary Policy
- Sandwich Leave Policy
- Annually or Performance-Based Increment Policy
- Sexual Harassment Clause
- Notice period and Termination
- Mobile Device Use Policy
- Social Media Use Policy

Recruitment and Hiring Policies

A Recruitment and Hiring Policy provides guidelines for attracting, evaluating, and selecting candidates in a fair and consistent manner. It ensures non-discrimination, equal opportunity, and compliance with legal requirements throughout the hiring process. Key elements include:

- Job Posting: Transparent internal and external job advertisements.
- Application Process: Clear steps for submitting applications and screening candidates.
- Interviews: Structured interviews to assess qualifications and cultural fit.
- Selection and Offers: Hiring decisions based on merit, followed by formal job offers.
- Onboarding: New hires complete documentation and receive orientation and training.

This policy ensures a fair, efficient, and legally compliant hiring process.

Health and Safety Policies

A Health and Safety Policy in our company focuses on ensuring a safe and healthy work environment, particularly for office and remote settings. Key elements include:

- Ergonomics: Guidelines for proper workstation setup to prevent strain and injury, including seating, screen positioning, and equipment use.
- Mental Health: Support for stress management and mental well-being through counseling services and work-life balance initiatives.
- Cybersecurity and Data Protection: Ensuring safe use of IT systems to prevent security breaches.
- Emergency Procedures: Clear plans for fire drills, evacuations, and response to data security incidents.

This policy ensures a safe, productive, and secure environment for employees in company.

Information Technology (IT) and Data Security Policies

An Information Technology (IT) and Data Security Policy protects an organization's digital assets and sensitive information. Key components include:

- Access Control: Restricting system access to authorized personnel only.
- Data Protection: Ensuring secure handling, storage, and transmission of sensitive data.
- Cybersecurity Measures: Implementing firewalls, encryption, and antivirus software to protect against cyber threats.
- Password Management: Enforcing strong password policies and multi-factor authentication.
- Incident Response: Procedures for reporting and addressing security breaches or data loss.

This policy safeguards company information, minimizes security risks, and ensures compliance with data protection regulations.

Anti-Fraud and Ethics Policies

An Anti-Fraud and Ethics Policy for an IT company ensures transparency, integrity, and ethical behavior across all operations. Key elements include:

- Fraud Prevention: Measures to prevent internal and external fraud, such as misreporting, data manipulation, and intellectual property theft.
- Ethical IT Practices: Guidelines for responsible use of company resources, software licensing, and adherence to data privacy laws.
- Reporting Channels: Confidential avenues for reporting fraud or unethical behavior, with protection from retaliation.
- Investigation Procedures: Defined steps to investigate and address reports of fraud or misconduct.
- Compliance: Ensuring all employees follow legal regulations, ethical IT standards, and company policies.

This policy safeguards the company's assets, promotes ethical use of technology, and maintains trust within the organization.

Remote Work Policies

A Remote Work Policy outlines expectations for employees working outside the office. Key components include:

1. Eligibility Criteria

- Qualifications: Specify which roles or employees are eligible for remote work based on job responsibilities, performance and management decision.
- Trial Period: Consider implementing a trial period to assess the suitability of remote work for both the employee and the team.

2. Work Expectations

- Productivity Standards: Clearly define performance metrics, goals, and deadlines for remote employees.
- Availability: Outline expectations regarding working hours, availability for meetings, and responsiveness to communications.

3. Communication Guidelines

- Preferred Tools: Specify the tools and platforms for communication (e.g., email, instant messaging, video conferencing) and establish regular check-in meetings.
- Reporting: Define how employees should report their progress, issues, and achievements.

4. Data Security and Compliance

- Access Control: Ensure secure access to company systems through VPNs or secure logins.
- Confidentiality: Employees must adhere to data protection regulations and safeguard sensitive information, avoiding unsecured networks.

5. Work Environment

- Home Office Setup: Encourage employees to create a designated workspace that is safe, ergonomic, and free from distractions.
- Health and Safety: Remind employees to follow health and safety guidelines while working remotely.

6. Equipment and Technology

- Provision of Tools: Specify which equipment (laptops, software, etc.) the company provides and which employees are responsible for sourcing.
- Technical Support: Outline the process for accessing IT support and resolving technical issues.

7. Performance Evaluation

- Assessment Methods: Describe how remote employees will be evaluated, including feedback mechanisms and performance reviews.
- Goal Setting: Encourage regular discussions on goals and objectives to ensure alignment with team and company targets.

Disciplinary Action & Grievance Policies

Disciplinary Action and Grievance Policies in company provide a structured framework for addressing employee misconduct and resolving workplace disputes. These policies promote a fair, transparent, and consistent approach to handling disciplinary issues and grievances. Here's an overview of the key components:

Disciplinary Action Policy

1. Purpose and Scope:

Establishes the objective of maintaining a professional work environment and outlines the policy's applicability to all employees.

2. Types of Misconduct:

Defines what constitutes misconduct, including but not limited to Violations of company policies or procedures.

- Insubordination or refusal to follow reasonable directives.
- Harassment, discrimination, or bullying.
- Theft or fraud.
- Breach of data security or confidentiality.

3. Progressive Discipline Process:

- Verbal Warning: Initial informal discussion addressing the issue and expectations for improvement.
- Written Warning: Formal documentation outlining the misconduct, expected improvements, and potential consequences of continued violations.
- Suspension: Temporary removal from the workplace for severe violations or repeated misconduct.
- Termination: Dismissal from the company if the issue persists or in cases of serious misconduct.

4. Investigation Procedures:

- Steps for investigating allegations of misconduct, ensuring confidentiality and fairness.
- Involvement of HR and relevant parties to gather facts and assess the situation.

5. Right to Appeal:

- Employees have the right to appeal disciplinary actions, with a clearly defined process for submitting appeals to a higher authority..

Grievance Policy

1. Purpose and Scope:

Aims to provide employees with a mechanism for raising concerns or complaints related to workplace issues, fostering a positive work environment.

2. Types of Grievances:

Covers various issues, including,

- Workplace harassment or discrimination.
- Policy violations by colleagues or management.
- Unfair treatment or favoritism.
- Issues related to job performance evaluations.

3. Reporting Process:

Clear steps for employees to report grievances:

- Informal Resolution: Encouragement to address issues directly with the involved parties where appropriate.
- Formal Complaint: Procedure for submitting a written grievance to HR (hr@hangingpanda.com) or management(faisal@hangingpanda.com), outlining the issue and desired resolution.

4. Investigation and Resolution:

- One person to assign work Timely investigation of grievances, ensuring confidentiality and impartiality.
- HR will communicate findings and proposed resolutions to the involved parties.

5. Follow-Up and Monitoring:

- Regular follow-ups to ensure the resolution is effective and that no retaliation occurs against the employee who filed the grievance.

6. Protection Against Retaliation:

- Assurance that employees will not face retaliation for reporting grievances or participating in investigations.

This structured approach to disciplinary action and grievance handling helps maintain a respectful and accountable workplace in company, fostering a culture of open communication and ethical behavior.

Working Hours and Attendance Policies

Managing working hours and attendance in an IT company is crucial for productivity and employee satisfaction. Here are some common practices and considerations:

1. Working Hours

Standard Work Week: Typically, our company follow a 40-hour work week, Timing to report for your duties from 10:00 AM or 10:30 AM to 07:00 PM or 07:30 PM with 40 minutes intermission for lunch and 20 min refreshment break accordingly.

Variable Work Time: Few employee can be asked for different working hours from standard work time depending upon work and by management decision depending upon client's timezone.

Weekend: For better work life management we give all Saturday's and Sunday's off, But in case of emergency employee can be asked to work on weekend and extra working days will be paid.

2. Attendance Tracking

Time Tracking Tools: Utilize software to track employee hours, like any tracking software tools. These tools help monitor attendance, project time, and productivity.

Biometric Systems: Our company have biometric attendance systems (fingerprint or facial recognition) for accurate attendance tracking. If in case Bio metric not working then need to inform to management.

Self-Reporting: Employees needs to put proper standup regarding work in assigned work channel and also need to put proper report at End of Day.

3. Leave Policies

Paid Leave (PL) : Company gives 12 Days of earned annual leaves (After completion probation period) Every month 1 leave be will be earned, no advance leave will be allowed if you don't have balance leave.

Sick Leaves (SL): 9 sick leaves annually (Allowed in probation period). More than 2 sick leave together need to provide proper medical documents.

Holiday Schedule: A list of company-observed holidays that employees can expect off work.

Remote Work Policies: Guidelines on how attendance and work hours are managed for remote employees.

Leave Deduction and Salary Policy

At HangingPanda, we value a fair approach to managing leave and ensuring salary is aligned with the time worked. Our Leave Deduction and Salary Policy is designed to clarify how various types of leave are deducted and how they impact salary, if applicable.

Leave days are deducted from the available balance depending on the type of leave and the company's leave calculation method.

1. Annual Leave Deduction

- Annual leave is deducted based on the actual working days taken off.
- If annual leave is taken around weekends or public holidays (i.e., sandwich leave), the entire period, including weekends and holidays, may be counted as leave, as outlined in the Sandwich Leave Policy.

2. Sick Leave Deduction

- Sick leave is granted based on company policy or legal guidelines. If an employee exhausts their sick leave balance, additional days taken will be deducted from annual leave or considered unpaid leave.
- Sick leave should be backed by a medical certificate if the absence is prolonged (typically more than two consecutive days).

3. Unpaid Leave Deduction

- When an employee has used up their paid leave entitlements (e.g., annual, sick), any additional leave taken will be considered unpaid.
- The employee's salary will be deducted proportionally for the days taken as unpaid leave, calculated on a per-day basis.

4. Leave without Approval but informed

- Any absence without prior approval or valid reason will be considered as unpaid leave, and salary will be deducted accordingly.

5. Leave without Approval and uninformed

- Any absence uninformed without any valid reason will be considered as unpaid leave, and salary will be twice deducted accordingly as it will be considered as NO CALL NO SHOW (NCNS) in such cases.

6. Leave Encashment/Carry over :

- There will be no Leave Encashment at financial year end for any kind of leave.
- Leave won't be carry over to next financial year.

7. Salary Confidentiality:

Employees are expected to maintain strict confidentiality regarding their compensation. Discussion or disclosure of salary details within the office premises or with other employees is strictly prohibited. Breach of this policy may be treated as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary action.

*Note: Our leave and salary deduction policies are designed to support the smooth functioning of our operations while ensuring employees are treated fairly. We encourage employees to plan their leave in advance as Annual leave won't be entertained if not informed prior and need to communicate with their supervisors and HR department for any clarification or special circumstances.

Sandwich Leave Policy

Purpose: To clarify the treatment of leave taken around weekends and public holidays.

Definition: Sandwich leave refers to leave taken immediately before and/or after a public holiday or weekend, extending time off

Policy Guidelines:

1. Leave Deduction:

- If an employee takes leave on the days before and after a public holiday or weekend, the entire duration—including the public holiday and weekends—will be counted as leave.
- For example, if a public holiday falls on a Friday and an employee takes leave on Thursday and the following Monday, the leave days will include Thursday, Friday (public holiday), Saturday, Sunday, and Monday.

2. Public Holidays During Leave:

- If an employee is already on leave, public holidays that fall within this period will not be counted against their leave balance.

3. Exceptions:

- This policy does not apply during official travel or approved long-term leaves (e.g. sick leave).

4. Request Process:

- Employees are encouraged to submit leave requests in advance and ensure that they understand how their leave may impact their overall leave balance.

Annually OR Performance-Based Increment Policy

Objective: To recognize and reward employee contributions through a structured salary increment process based on individual performance and company growth.

Policy Statement: The company is committed to offering fair and competitive compensation. Salary increments are not automatic and shall be awarded based on:

- Individual performance and achievements
- Role-specific responsibilities and results
- Departmental and organizational goals
- Feedback from reporting managers
- Market competitiveness and budget availability

Types of increments :

1. Annual Increments :

- .Employees are eligible for a performance review on an annual basis. Based on the evaluation, an increment may be offered at the discretion of the management

2. Mid - term OR Delayed Revision :

- If an annual increment is not awarded, a salary revision may be considered within 12 to 18 months from the date of joining or last revision, based on consistent performance and the recommendation of the reporting manager.

Conditions:

- Employees must have completed at least 12 months of continuous service to be eligible for an annual review, unless otherwise specified by management.
- Unsatisfactory performance or disciplinary issue may result in delay, reduction or denial of an increment.
- Increments Decisions are at the sole discretion of management and subject to business needs and financial performance.

*Note: Important Instruction -

Internship Period Exclusion: Please note that the duration of your internship or training period will not be considered for salary increment or performance review eligibility. Only the period served as a full-time employee from the date of official appointment will be counted for the purpose of salary revisions, appraisals, and other employment-related benefits.

Sexual Harassment Clause

1. “Sexual Harassment” includes anyone or more of the following unwelcome acts or behavior (whether directly or by implication), namely:

- Physical contact or advances;
- A demand or request for sexual favors;
- Making sexually colored remarks;
- Showing pornography;
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.

2. The Company reiterates its commitment to providing its employees, a workplace free from harassment/discrimination and where every employee is treated with dignity and respect. All employees of the Company have a personal responsibility to ensure that their behavior is not contrary to this clause.

3. All employees are encouraged to reinforce the maintenance of a work environment free from sexual harassment. Making a knowingly false complaint subjects the complaint to disciplinary or corrective action.

4. All employees are encouraged to reinforce the maintenance of a work environment free from sexual harassment. Making a knowingly false complaint subjects the complaint to disciplinary or corrective action.

5. However, failure to prove a claim of sexual harassment does not constitute proof of a false and/or malicious accusation.

6. . Sexual Harassment is prohibited in the workplace by any employee and in any form which will be subject to disciplinary action and even Suspension or termination of services of the employee found guilty of the offense.

Notice Period and Termination

- The services are terminable by giving One or Two month notice after successful completion of probation period depending upon roles and responsibilities. This will be discussed at the time of joining or at the time of increment.
- If you absent yourself without leave or remain absent beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, you shall be considered as having voluntarily terminated your employment without giving any notice, unless you return to work within 7 days from the commencement of such absence and give an explanation to the satisfaction of the management regarding such absence.
- Your services are liable to be terminated without any notice or salary in lieu thereof in the event of any misconduct, without being exhaustive and without prejudice to the general meaning of the term “misconduct”, in the case of reasonable suspicion of misconduct, disloyalty and commission of an act involving moral turpitude, any act of indiscipline or inefficiency.
- On satisfactory completion of the probation period and after your confirmation in writing, except for the reason mentioned in this offer letter, your services can be terminated by giving notice of one month or payment of salary, in lieu thereof on either side.

- The management as such fully authorized to relieve you at any time during the notice period and you shall not be entitled to any salary or allowances whatsoever, in lieu of the remaining period of your notice if misconduct is done by employee at the time of notice period.
- In case any information is withheld or found to be incorrect , your appointment shall be deemed to be irregular. The Company can terminate such employment without notice at any time.
- Full and Final (FNF) will be done after 40 days from last working days of employee.

Mobile Device Use Policy

Employees are expected to use their personal and company-provided mobile devices responsibly and in compliance with the following guidelines:

1. Personal Device Use:

- Keep personal calls, texts, and social media browsing to a minimum during work hours.
- Ensure mobile devices are on silent mode during meetings and collaborative sessions.

2. Company-Issued Devices:

- Use company-provided devices for work purposes only.
- Follow data security protocols such as password protection and VPN usage.

3. Prohibited Actions:

- Avoid using mobile devices for non-work activities like watching movies, videos, social media usage, playing mobile games etc. that could lead to distractions or productivity loss.
- Avoid endorsing any third-party products or services without proper approval.

Social Media Use Policy

The use of social media, both personally and for work, must align with the company's values and brand image:

1. Personal Social Media:

- Employees are free to express their opinions but must avoid posting anything that could harm the company's reputation.
- Never share confidential company information, client data, or proprietary work on social media..

2. Company-Related Social Media:

- Only authorized personnel may post on behalf of the company.
- All work-related social media content must be pre-approved by the marketing or PR team.

3. Prohibited Actions:

- Engaging in arguments or making defamatory comments about the company, clients, or competitors on social media is strictly prohibited.
- Avoid endorsing any third-party products or services without proper approval.

Policy Modification

Purpose: To outline the process for modifying company policies and ensuring that all employees are informed of any changes.

1. Authority for Modification: The authority to modify company policies lies with [specific position or department, e.g., the Human Resources Department, executive management, etc.]. Any changes to policies will be made to align with legal requirements, business needs, and employee welfare.

2. Review Process

- Policies will be reviewed annually or as needed based on changes in laws, regulations, or company operations.
- Feedback from employees and managers may be solicited during the review process to ensure policies are effective and relevant.

3. Notification of Changes

- Employees will be notified of any policy modifications through official communications, which may include emails, meetings, or announcements.
- Changes will be documented in the employee handbook and made accessible via the company's intranet or HR portal.

4. Effective Date

- Modifications to policies will have a specified effective date, which will be communicated alongside the notification of changes.
- Employees will be expected to adhere to the modified policies from the effective date onward.

5. Acknowledgment of Changes

- Employees may be required to acknowledge receipt and understanding of modified policies by signing a document or confirming via electronic means.
- A record of acknowledgment will be maintained by the HR department.

All members are bound to the Rules and Regulations of the company. Please indicate your acceptance of this policy by signing below and returning back.

We at HangingPanda extend a warm welcome to you and look forward to a mutually beneficial experience.

ACCEPTED BY:
SIGN:

Faisal B. Kazmi
Director

Name:
Date: